

BETRAYAL

*I gave you my part
I tried to close your gap
You made me a snap
I felt the close of the gap
But it was only the shadow of a cap
You made it taste like a stacte
Make it look sumptuous from afar
Captured from the back
I had the sense of truth it lacked
But I couldn't tell cause it was dark
With a broad smile under the lamp
It was hard to let the cat out if the bag
Then you turned to the dark
Only to give me a stab in the back
Only then did I know I was slack
And you took advantage of that part
